ARCHBOLD.

An adjourned session of the borough council was held last evening. All the members were present except Mr. Kleinbauer, and President Hunt presided. A bill of the Crescent Electric company amounting to $225 was ordered paid and one of Contractor Spillane for $25 for extra work on the foot bridge was laid over for correction. A communication from the secretary of the board of health asking for the re-appointment of D. P. O'Rourke and also of some one to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John J. Philbin was laid over until the next meeting. The bond of Treasurer Justus Bishop amounting to $12,000 with George Bishop, H. D. Linderman, Chris. Modler and Henry Probst, as sureties was accepted. Mr. Munley suggested that there be a regular pay day for the men employed on the road and it was decided to fix a time agreeable to all concerned. John J. Barrett, ex-tax collector, called the attention of the council to a balance charged against him on the auditor's reports which, he says, he does not owe. He asked the council to investigate and have some disposition made of the matter. Agreeably to his request the president appointed Wagner, Belle and Philbin a committee. A bill of the Archbold Citizen amounting to $10 for printing an ordinance of the Archbold Traction company created a lively discussion. The council did not seem inclined to give a franchise free of charge to the company and pay its advertising bill as well. Mr. Philbin made a motion to the effect that the Traction company be notified that if that bill, as well as another advertising bill, be not paid before the next meeting of the council that measures be taken to revoke the franchise. This motion was agreed to. Mr. Philbin also suggested that a cabinet be placed in the council room for the purpose of preserving the borough records, bills, orders and ordinances. It was decided to take measures to do so. Mr. Wagner called attention to a damage claim of James Johnson, of Road, Bohle, Philbin, Loftus, light, Jones, Kleinbauer, Dean, Walter, Wagner, Munley, Loftus, police, Hunt, Philbin and Burgess Langan. President Hunt urged the council to be careful in inspecting bills presented for payment and requested the members of the council to be diligent in the work required of them.

The Tribune presents today a portrait of Edward A. Jones, the president of the borough council of 1896.

Mr. Andrew Meehan, who has been very ill for the past few weeks, is recovering rapidly and it is hoped he will in a short time be able to attend to his duties.

Mrs. Andrew Meehan, of Mayfield, moved into her main street residence on Wednesday.

Messrs. Frank Steele and Charles L. Bell are in New York city purchasing goods for their proposed store. Mr. Bell has given up the idea of going to Alaska and instead will embark in the mercantile business.

The Jernym council is not the only one which has experienced difficulty in the election of a chairman. Olyphant borough council has taken fourteen ballots and it still remains to be seen if the members are worked up somewhat over the affair. In Jessup they have ten councilmen, and they also are in a deadlock. Jernym council meets again tonight, and in all probability they will elect the chairman.

Mr. Jones has been shown by his excellent conduct as a borough official that he is fitted for something higher and it would give pleasure to his many friends here to see him in a position better suited to his ability.
